

Holly Lofgren Consulting

Nonprofit Professional

www.linkedin.com/in/hollylofgren

halof@sbcglobal.net

Holly is a nonprofit consultant specializing in capacity building with small organizations. She is a dedicated and results-oriented nonprofit professional with a passion for helping nonprofit organizations succeed. Holly has successfully merged a financial career in the for-profit telecommunications industry with experience in the nonprofit sector. She has achieved a unique balance of analytical techniques, effective communication ability and people skills. Her skills range from fundraising, to board development to compliance to nonprofit finance. Holly's fund development experience is in capital campaigns, annual campaigns, and grant proposal writing which leads her help others implement better strategies for communications and civic engagement. About half of Holly's work is with faith-based organizations. Holly recently completed a successful annual campaign for AFPSV where she raised 120% of the goal.